Pune, Date: 24/12/2014:

Good Governance Day is celebrated in the honor of Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee at MAEER's MIT College of Engineering, Pune on 24th December. This program was initiated by MHRD, Govt. of India and AICTE, New Delhi 20. Staff and students enthusiastically participated in this event. 'Technology usage in good governance' and 'Oratory skills', contests were conducted for staff members and students. The aim was to strengthen and propagate the Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee's philosophy and teaching to the fellow Indians. Many participants stressed the need of transparency, Efficiency, Citizens charter, Responsibility, Management and above all, use of technology to curb corruption in the governance. Moreover, they appealed to government employees and other stake holders to think seriously about good governance. Participants warned that people will lose the entire faith in the government and its machinery. In other event, oratory skills were observed among the staff and students which are very helpful for any academic institution. Everybody was energized with the Shri Vajpayee's poem video on 'swatantrata'. Certificate of excellence and gift articles were distributed to winners in the staff and students category. Other participants were also rewarded with certificates of participation. This event was graced by principal, Dr. Manoj Nagmode, Vice Principal, Dr. Ramchandra V. Pujeri, Dean Administration, Dr. Shivprakash Barve, Registrar, Shri Prashant Bhalerao and Dr. Anil Hiwale.
