"Sadbhavana Divas" is celebrated at MAEER's MIT College of Engineering, Pune on 20th August 2015. This program was initiated by Govt. of India and AICTE, New Delhi 20. 22 year back, Sadbhavana divas started in the memory of and to mark the birth anniversary of Shri Rajiv Gandhiji, the late Prime Minister of INDIA. Staff and students participated in the need of such a peace drive. Grievances redressal cell administered the oath of sadbhavana to the students and staff of MIT COE as scripted by government authorities. Importance of communal harmony and national integration is conveyed to all in the MIT campus. Oath script is as follows.

I take this solemn pledge that I will work for the emotional oneness and harmony of all the people of India regardless of caste, region, religion or language. I further pledge that I shall resolve all differences among us through dialogue and constitutional means without resorting to violence.

Considering stressful life, students were conveyed that the dialog and an interaction is very important to deal with odd situations. For INDIA, this is especially important in the context of diverse religions, regions and languages. Students got energized with the idea and participated joyfully. MITCOE is thankful to AICTE and central government for such an initiative. Prof. Dr. Mangesh Karad administered this oath to staff members as well as Prof. Sharadchandra Darade (Patil), Dean MIT Pune, participated for the same cause. Vice Principal, Prof. Dr. Ramachandra Pujeri and Principal, Dr. Manoj Nagmode stressed importance of dialog. Students were also made aware that under the blessings of Prof. Dr. V. D. Karad, campus is witnessing communal harmony and spirituality for the peace of mankind, since last many years.
